और 9-C का
अन्तःस्थापन।

"9-A. Owner to furnish security.—(1) Where it appears to the Assessing Authority necessary so to do, for the proper realisation of the tax or surcharge levied under this Act, it may, after giving an opportunity of being heard, require any owner to furnish security of an amount not exceeding twenty thousand rupees in the manner prescribed.

(2) Where the security furnished by an owner under sub-section (1) is in the form of surety-bond and the surety becomes insolvent or is otherwise incapacitated or dies or withdraws, the owner shall, within fifteen days of the occurrence of any of the aforesaid events, inform the Assessing Authority and shall within thirty days of such occurrence furnish a fresh surety-bond.

(3) The Assessing Authority may, by an order in writing for good and sufficient cause and after giving the owner a reasonable opportunity of being heard, forfeit the whole or any part of the security furnished by the owner for realising any amount of tax or penalty payable by him under this Act.

(4) Where by reason of an order under sub-section (3), the security furnished by any owner is rendered insufficient, he shall make up the deficiency in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed.

(5) The Assessing Authority may, on application by an owner release the security furnished by him or any part thereof, if the same is no longer required to be retained for the purposes of this Act.

9-B. Assessment of tax and surcharge.—(1) Where the Assessing Authority is satisfied without requiring the presence of the owner or the production by him of any evidence that the returns furnished in respect of any period are correct and complete, it shall assess the amount of tax or surcharge on the basis of such returns.

(2) Where the Assessing Authority is not satisfied without requiring presence of owner or production of evidence that the returns furnished in respect of any period are correct and complete, it shall serve on such owner a notice in the prescribed manner requiring him on a date and place specified therein either to attend in person or to produce or to cause to be produced any evidence on which the owner may rely in support of such returns.

(3) On the date specified in the notice or as soon afterwards as may be, the Assessing Authority shall, after hearing such evidence as the owner may produce, and such other evidence as the Assessing Authority may require on specified points, assess the amount of tax or surcharge due from the owner.

- (4) If any owner, having furnished returns in respect of any period fails to comply with the notice issued under sub-section (2), the Assessing Authority shall within three years after the expiry of such period, assess to the best of his judgment the amount of tax or surcharge due from the owner.
- (5) If the Assessing Authority is satisfied that any owner is liable to pay tax or surcharge under this Act in respect of any period but who has wilfully failed to apply for registration or to pay the tax or surcharge, as the case be, the said authority may, after giving the owner a reasonable opportunity of being heard, assess the amount of tax or surcharge if any, due from the owner and also direct that the owner shall pay in the prescribed manner by way of penalty a sum not exceeding five times the amount of tax or surcharge so assessed subject to a minimum of five hundred rupees.

9-C. Re-assessment of tax and surcharge.—(1) If in consequence of an information which has come into his possession, the Assessing Authority discovers that the tax or surcharge due from the owner has been under assessed or has escaped assessment in any year, the Assessing Authority may at any time within five years following the close of the year for which re-assessment is to be made and after giving a reasonable opportunity, in the prescribed manner, of being heard proceed to re-assess the tax or surcharge payable, which has been under-assessed or has escaped assessment.

- (2) The Assessing Authority may, at any time, within one year from the date of any order passed by him and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, rectify any clerical or arithmetical error apparent from the record”.

9. मूल अधिनियम की धारा 16 के स्थान पर निम्नलिखित धारा 16 प्रतिस्थापित की जाएगी, अर्थात्:—

धारा 16
का
प्रतिस्थापन।

“16. Revisions.—(1) The Commissioner may, of his own motion, call for the record of any proceedings which are pending before, or have been disposed of by any authority subordinate to him, for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of such proceedings or order made therein and may pass such order in relation thereto as he may think fit.

- (2) The State Government may by notification confer on any officer powers of the Commissioner under sub-section (1) to be exercised subject to such conditions and in respect of such areas as may be specified in the notification.
- (3) No order shall be passed under this section which adversely affects any person unless such person has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.”

10. मूल अधिनियम की धारा 22 की उप-धारा (2) में,—

धारा 22 का
संशोधन ।

(i) खण्ड (c) के पश्चात्, निम्नलिखित खण्ड अन्तःस्थापित किए जाएंगे, अर्थात्:—

“(cc) Prescribing the returns to be furnished under sub-section (1) of section 6 and intervals at which such returns shall be furnished;

5 (ccc) prescribing the manner of payment of tax and surcharge under sub-section (2) of section 6;” और

(ii) खण्ड (d) के पश्चात् निम्नलिखित खण्ड अन्तःस्थापित किए जाएंगे, अर्थात्:—

10 “(dd) prescribing the manner in which the security is to be furnished under sub-section (1) of section 9-A and the time within which and the manner in which the security rendered insufficient is to be made up under sub-section (4) of that section ;

(ddd) prescribing the manner for serving notice on the owner under sub-section (2) of section 9-B and the manner for payment of penalty under sub-section (5) of that section ;

15 (ddd) prescribing the manner for giving reasonable opportunity for re-assessment of tax and surcharge under sub-section (2) of section 9-C;” और

Insertion of new sections
9-A, 9-B and
9-C.

“9-A. Owner to furnish security.—(1) Where it appears to the Assessing Authority necessary so to do, for the proper realisation of the tax or surcharge levied under this Act, it may, after giving an opportunity of being heard require any owner to furnish security of an amount not exceeding twenty thousand rupees in the manner prescribed.

(2) Where the security furnished by an owner under sub-section (1) is in the form of surety bond and the surety becomes insolvent or is otherwise incapacitated or dies or withdraws, the owner shall, within fifteen days of the occurrence of any of the aforesaid events, inform the Assessing Authority and shall within thirty days of such occurrence furnish a fresh surety bond.

(3) The Assessing Authority may, by an order in writing for good and sufficient cause and after giving the owner a reasonable opportunity of being heard, forfeit the whole or any part of the security furnished by the owner for realising any amount of tax or penalty payable by him under this Act.

(4) Where by reason of an order under sub-section (3), the security furnished by any owner is rendered insufficient, he shall make up the deficiency in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed.

(5) The Assessing Authority may, on application by an owner, release the security furnished by him or any part thereof, if the same is no longer required to be retained for the purposes of this Act.

9-B. Assessment of tax and surcharge.—(1) Where the Assessing Authority is satisfied without requiring the presence of the owner or the production by him of any evidence that the returns furnished in respect of any period are correct and complete, it shall assess the amount of tax or surcharge on the basis of such returns.

(2) Where the Assessing Authority is not satisfied without requiring presence of owner or production of evidence that the returns furnished in respect of any period are correct and complete, it shall serve on such owner a notice in the prescribed manner requiring him on a date and place specified therein either to attend in person or to produce or to cause to be produced any evidence on which the owner may rely in support of such returns.

(3) On the date specified in the notice or as soon afterwards as may be, the Assessing Authority shall, after hearing such evidence as the owner may produce, and such other evidence as the Assessing Authority may require on specified points assess the amount of tax or surcharge due from the owner.

(4) If any owner, having furnished returns in respect of any period fails to comply with the notice issued under sub-section (2), the Assessing Authority shall within three years after the expiry of such period, assess to the best of his judgment the amount of tax or surcharge due from the owner.

(5) If the Assessing Authority is satisfied that any owner is liable to pay tax or surcharge under this Act in respect of any period but who has wilfully failed to apply for registration or to pay the tax or surcharge as the case may be, the said authority may, after giving the owner a reasonable opportunity of being heard, assess the amount of tax or surcharge, if any, due from the owner and also direct that the owner shall pay in the prescribed manner by way of penalty a sum not exceeding five times the amount of tax or surcharge so assessed subject to a minimum of five hundred rupees.

9-C. Re-assessment of tax and surcharge.—(1) If in consequence of an information which has come into his possession, the Assessing Authority discovers that the tax or surcharge due from the owner has been under-assessed or has escaped assessment in any year, the Assessing Authority may at any time within five years following the close of the year for which re-assessment is to be made and after giving a reasonable opportunity, in the prescribed manner, of being heard proceed to re-assess the tax or surcharge payable, which has been under-assessed or has escaped assessment.

(2) The Assessing Authority may, at any time, within one year from the date of any order passed by him and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, rectify any clerical or arithmetical error apparent from the record.”.

Substitution
of section 16.

9. For section 16 of the principal Act, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“16. Revisions.—(1) The Commissioner may, of his own motion, call for the record of any proceedings which are pending before, or have been disposed of by, any authority subordinate to him for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of such proceedings or order made therein and may pass such order in relation thereto as he may think fit.

(2) The State Government may by notification confer on any officer powers of the Commissioner under sub-section (1) to be exercised subject to such conditions and in respect of such areas as may be specified in the notification.

(3) No order shall be passed under this section which adversely affects any person unless such person has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.”.

Amendment
of section 22.

10. In sub-section (2) of section 22 of the principal Act, —

(i) after clause (c), the following clauses, shall be inserted, namely:—

“(cc) prescribing the returns to be furnished under sub-section (1) of section 6 and intervals at which such returns shall be furnished ;

(ccc) prescribing the manner of payment of tax and surcharge under sub-section (2) of section 6 ;”

(ii) after clause (d), the following clauses shall be inserted, namely:—

“(dd) prescribing the manner in which the security is to be furnished under sub-section (i) of section 9-A and the time within which and the manner in which the security rendered insufficient is to be made up under sub-section (4) of that section ;

(ddd) prescribing the manner for serving notice on the owner under sub-section (2) of section 9-B and the manner for payment of penalty under sub-section (5) of that section ;

(dddd) prescribing the manner for giving reasonable opportunity for re-assessment of tax and surcharge under sub-section (2) of section 9-C;” ; and

(iii) in clause (i) , for the sign “.” occurring at the end, the sign “,” shall be substituted and thereafter the following provisos shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that the State Government may, for the purposes of section 4 of this Act, make rules with retrospective effect so as to be effective from any day on or after 1st day of October, 1990 :

Provided further that unless the rules are made under the preceding proviso, the State Government may make rules under this Act subject to the condition of previous publication .”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Clause (j) of section 2 of the Himachal Pradesh Passengers and Goods Taxation Act, 1955 provides that various expressions used have the meaning assigned to them in the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, which stands repealed by the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, resulting into change of numerous definitions. As such it is essential to bring the definition of "motor vehicle" in conformity with that provided in the new Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. Besides, the references to the repealed Act and its provisions also require corrections. Further, to dispel the recent controversy regarding Government's powers to recover lump sum tax from the owners of passengers vehicles, it is essential to modify relevant provisions so as to empower the Government to assess the tax on the lump sum basis after taking into consideration the registered capacity and the distance to be covered by each vehicle. In addition, with the objective of removing lacunae in the provisions relating to payment of tax, security from owners, assessment of tax, re-assessment of tax and revisions, and making them explicit, these are proposed to be made similar to the corresponding provisions relating to sales tax. These have necessitated the amendments in the Himachal Pradesh Passengers and Goods Taxation Act, 1955.

This Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objectives.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill does not propose to levy fresh taxes. The provisions of the Bill, when enacted, are to be enforced through the existing Government machinery. As such there will be no extra income to the State Government and no additional expenditure will be involved.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 10 of the Bill seeks to amend section 22 of the Himachal Pradesh Passengers and Goods Taxation Act, 1955 to empower the State Government to make rules for prescribing the returns and the intervals at which such returns are to be filed, the manner of payment of tax and surcharge, the manner in which an owner is to furnish security and the time within which and the manner in which the security rendered insufficient is to be made up, the manner of serving notice on the owner, the manner of payment of penalty and the manner of giving reasonable opportunity for reassessment of tax and surcharge under the Act. The proposed delegation of powers is essential and normal in character.
